FALL 2015 EVENTS

LEARNING AND TECHNOLOGY WORKSHOPS
Homer Rice, Library
Aug. 25, 11 a.m.–Noon; Sept. 2, 1–2 p.m.
Digitalized Selves: How to Integrate Student Reflection on Learning into Your Course Using Mahara e-portfolios

Aug. 28, 11 a.m.–Noon
Level up! Taking your T-square Skills to the Next Level to Engage Your Students

Sept. 15, 11:00 a.m.–Noon
Beyond the Classroom Poll: Leveraging Learning Science Principles to Engage Your Students Using Clickers

LEARNING AND TECHNOLOGY TRAINING
Homer Rice, Library
Aug. 18, 10 a.m.–Noon; Aug. 19, 1–3 p.m.
T-square 101: Mastering the Essentials for the First Day of Class

Aug. 26, 1–3 p.m.
Clickers 101: The Essentials You Need to Transform Your Lectures Into Active Learning Experiences

FOR ALL INSTRUCTORS (Faculty, Graduate Students and Postdocs)

CETL BOOK CLUB
Sept. 4, Sept. 25, Oct. 16, Nov. 13
4–5 p.m.
Ferst Room, Library
The first two meetings of the Fall book club will kick off with an in-depth discussion of Make it Stick: The Science of Successful Learning by Peter Brown, Henry Roediger, III, and Mark McDaniel. In the last two meetings, we will discuss How College Works by Daniel Chambliss and Christopher Takacs.

For more information or to join, contact Caroline Noyes at caroline.noyes@carnegie.gatech.edu.

TEACHING AND LEARNING JOURNAL CLUB
11 a.m.–Noon
Room 466A, Clough Commons
The journal club is designed to share relevant articles in educational research with the broader Georgia Tech instructional community. Topics typically include: motivation, teaching strategies, memory and cognition, classroom management, course evaluations, classroom assessment, etc.

For more information or to join, contact Caroline Noyes at caroline.noyes@carnegie.gatech.edu

See reverse side for the Fall 2015 Schedule of CETL Events

DID YOU KNOW?
CETL consultants are available throughout the year to talk one-on-one about all things teaching and learning.

CETL coordinates the awards process for several campus-wide teaching awards. Nomination and application instructions are available on our website.

CETL consultants are available to develop discipline-specific TA, Faculty, and/or Postdoctoral teaching orientations, workshops, and learning communities to meet the needs of any academic unit.

CETL consultants can help you gather, interpret, and respond to feedback from your students during the semester — ideally early in the semester (week 4-6).
FOR ALL INSTRUCTORS
Faculty, Graduate Students and Postdocs

FALL TEACHING KICKOFF
Room 102, Clough Commons
Join us for a series of interactive workshops aimed at getting you geared up and ready for the first day of class. Stay all day, or join us as your schedule permits.

Aug. 10
9 a.m.–11 a.m. Syllabus Clinic

Aug. 10
11:30 a.m.–1 p.m. Tweet This! Creating a Tech Strategy that Really Works

Aug. 10
1:30–3 p.m. Making the Most of the First Day of Class

ENGAGING CONVERSATIONS
Crescent Room, Student Center
Bring your lunch and join colleagues and award winners as they share their research and classroom innovations.

Oct. 7
Noon–1 p.m. Using WebAssign to Engage and Assess Students in the Digital Space

Nov. 4
Noon–1 p.m. Conversations with Award-Winning Faculty

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS
Wilby Room, Library Basement
These two-hour interactive sessions are designed to provide participants with the opportunity to collaboratively explore and share practical, evidence-based teaching strategies that are rooted in relevant research about teaching and learning. Lunch is provided.

Sept. 17
11 a.m.–1 p.m. Size Matters: Teaching Your Small Class for All It’s Worth

Oct. 15
11 a.m.–1 p.m. Uncovering [Un]Intentional Communication Practices in Teaching and Learning

Nov. 19
11 a.m.–1 p.m. The Large Lecture: How to Engage Students Without Flipping Your Class

For more information and to register, visit:
www.cetl.gatech.edu
Clough Undergraduate Learning Commons, Suite 457
404.894.4474 | cetlhelp@gatech.edu

FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS, POSTDOCS AND TEACHING ASSISTANTS

TEACHING ASSISTANT ORIENTATIONS
Clough Commons
These orientations are designed to provide new teaching assistants with knowledge and skills that help foster success in the GT classroom.

Aug. 14
8 a.m.–1:15 p.m. New Teaching Assistant Orientation

Aug. 14
2:15 p.m.–4:45 p.m. New International Teaching Assistant Orientation

Aug. 18
6 p.m.–8:30 p.m. Make-up International Teaching Assistant Orientation

Aug. 27
6 p.m.–8:30 p.m. Make-up New Teaching Assistant Orientation

TEACHING WORKSHOPS AND BROWN BAG CONVERSATIONS
Wilby Room, Library Basement
These workshops and brown bag conversations will address research-based practices for effective teaching.

Sept. 11
11:30 a.m.–1 p.m. Body and Voice: Using Nonverbal Communication and Paralinguistics to Enhance Your Teaching

Oct. 9
Noon–1:30 p.m. Academic Job Panel: Faculty Life at a Variety of Institutions

Nov. 4
Noon–1 p.m. Conversations with Award-Winning Faculty

ACADEMIC COMMUNICATION WORKSHOPS
Wilby Room, Library Basement
These workshops address various topics related to written, oral, and visual communication.

Sept. 10
10:30 a.m.–Noon Crafting a CV and Cover Letter

Oct. 8
10:30 a.m.–Noon Crafting a Teaching Philosophy Statement

Nov. 12
10:30 a.m.–Noon Crafting a Research Statement